FROM THE SECRETARY'S QUILL

July 2011

Thanks to Belvidere Boat Club for hosting the July Meeting. They provided everyone with the opportunity to have a great dinner BBQ Style and the board truly appreciates the efforts extended to make the meeting successful. We would like to thank Save Our South Channel Lights President Chuck Brockman for a very Educational Presentation with regard to the S.O.S organization and where they are today after many years of dedication to the historical South Channel Lights.

The next event on the ABYA Calendar is the ABYA Charity Fundraiser Texas Holdem Tournament October 8th 2011 at Huron Pointe Yacht Club 32800 S. River Rd Harrison Twp Please try to sell the tickets that were handed out at the July Meeting by R/C Rick Watros we hope to have a better Turnout than we had in April Remember the more participants we have the better the pay out, and the more fun for everyone. And remember the Delegate or Club that sells that 1ST Place Winner Ticket will receive a ticket for 2 for the 2011 ABYA Christmas Charity Ball in December. (For more information see attached Flyers).

If any Delegate or Past Commodore would be interested in stepping for Secretary for 2012 Please feel free to contact P/C Lois Conti or any of her Committee Members P/C Tom Hepp or P/C Gary Nowicki
